CLEVELAND, Oct. 11.-Charles T. Maxwell, a colored medical student in this city, has received a letter from ex-Consul John L. Waller. The letter is dated "Maison Centrale, du Clairvaux, France, Sept. 8." After thanking Mr. Maxwell for expressions of sympathy contained in a letter he had written to the imprisoned man, Mr. Waller says:
"It gives me great pleasure to know that

I have the sympathy and support of the American people, who are using every honorable means and endeavor to secure me my liberty. I am a victim of circumstances, and whether I shall finally receive justice at the hands of the French people or perish in a foreign prison by virtue of a hasty condiction rendered by a court martial in the heat of excitement under these circumstances rests with God and the American people, in whose action and righteous jadgment f have the most implicit confidence.

"That it is the desire or intention of the Freuch as a government to do me an injustice I do not for a moment believe. HARRISON AND M'KINLEY

The Ex-President Gave No Advice on the McKinley Tariff Law.

SOME MISLEADING STATEMENTS

Corrected by the Cine-nati Commercial Gazette, Whose Haitor Was Close to General Harrison During the Latter's Ad-

CINCINNATI, Oct. 14—The Commercial Gazette, a strong McKinley paper, edited by Perry S. Heath, who was close to Mr. Harrison during his administration, says in today's issue: A great deal has recently appeared respecting the attitude of President Harrison toward the McKinley turiff at the time of its adoption. It is contended that in the capacity of president General Harrison opposed the adoption of schedules as high as those in the McKinley bill, and that he entered a protest against them to those who had the measure in charge. One prominent Republican newspaper has stated recently that the McKinley tar-iff defeated Harrison's re-election and that this fact is the cause of "Harrison's feeling toward McKinley." Another influential Republican newspaper in the west announced that during the consideration of the McKinley bill President Harrison summoned its author and Speaker Reed, and possibly other party leaders, and warned them against the adoption of such high figures. The Commercial Gazette is in a position to say that all such statements are untrue and misleading. Ex-President Harrison deserves neither censure nor praise on account of the McKinley tariff law. He took no part in drafting or the consideration of the measure. No feature of the law, so far as those who compiled it are aware, represented his particular views or met with his specific disapproval.

Repeatedly President Harrison, when asked by those drafting the bill, what he thought of it, stated that the details should be left to those in charge of the measure; that they were responsible to the people. and were most familiar with the subjects in hand. He offered no advice.

When the bill went to the White House for signature the president did not, so far as is known, show any displeasure or offer criticism. Nor did he subsequently express displeasure with the law. If the law was ever held responsible for the defeat of 1892, President Harrison should stand blame-

She was unable to extricate the chamber, and in some way a cartridge was discharged. The ball struck below the clavicle and glanced upwards. Miss West died an hour later. She was 21 years old, extremely pretty and a great favorite.

Noted Preacher Favors Open Saloons. New York, Oct. 14.—Rev. Dr. Heber Newton advocated open saloons on Sunday, and declared that a complete closing was an impossibility, in his sermon at All Souls' church yesterday. Local option means far more than the rights of a city to settle its own excise system; it means that civic freedom with which comes the education of a civic conscience."

DURRANTS EVIDENCE.

Prosecution Declares He Omitted Important Details.

WHAT IE TOLD MISS CUNNINGHAM.

Said He saw Miss Lamont's Dead Body in the Beifry on the Afternoon He Repaired

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 14 -Now that Durrant has told his story on the witness stand and has made answers to all the acculations implied by the cross questions of the prosecution an impression exists among the - who have watched the trial closely that there is something to come which will perhaps have more effect on the minds of the jurymen as regards the guilt or innocency of the defendant than anything that has gone before. This feeling is due to the confidence with which District Attorney Barnes put a series of startling questions relating to a conversation held by Durrant with a newspaperreporter, Miss Carrie Cunningham, at the courty jail whilin the past week, and also ton, gon the address and inder-ement with envelope which may or may not have contained a confession. The prosecution witnesses will seek to show by their testimony that Durrant made admission; which destroys the whole fabric of the defense. These alleged admissions are taken by the prosecution as coming from the one person on earth who knows all that occurred beneath the belfry of the Emanuel Baptist, church on the afternoon of April 3 The record of what passed at the county jail between Miss. Cunningham and Durrant is thus told by the prosecution, which is in possession of the full facts.

On the evening of Sept. 22 Miss Cunningham visited Durrant at the county jail, and during the course of their conversation Durrant showed her a small envelope which bore the following address and indorsement: "Messrs, Dickinson & Ducprey. To be opened in case I am convicted. To be returned to me in case I am acquitted." Durrant told the young lady that the envelope contained a complete statement of all that had occurred at the Emanuel Baptist church on the afternoon of April 3. He said that it had been written in order that his attorneys might know the facts in the event of his being convicted of the murder of Blanche Lamont. On the following evening, Sept. 23, Miss Cunningham again visited Durrant at the county jail, and was there shown a large envelope addressed like the other and smaller one. Durrant told her that the contents of the other envelope had become jammed up, and that he had transferred the written statement to the larger en-

On the morning of Oct. 5 Miss Cunningham held a conversation with Durrant at the county jail, and during the course of that conversation, and in answer to questions asked him by the young lady, he said that about 5 o'clock on the afternoon of April 3 he ascended the space between the ceiling and the roof of the Emanuel Baptist church for the purpose of fixing one of the sun burners. While at work he heard a noise which at once attracted his attention. It seemed to come from that part of the building where the belfry is situated. He walked along in the direction from which the sound came and peared through the opening that connects the space above the ceiling with the interior of the belfry tower. While in this position he saw the body of Blanche Lamont lying on the second landing of the bolfer stair. He repeated the details of the circumstances, and added that Blanche Lamont was murdered on the second land then liberated.

landing of the helfry stairs. Miss Cun-

bam then said: "Oh, yes, it was from the second landing of the stairs that the blood dripped down and stained the cloth covered nicture frame on the floor below." Durrant replied that there was no blood on the cover of the picture frame, as two have had the stains analyzed and find they were made by water, not blood." An official inspection was made of the cloth covered picture frame referred to as being stained by blood. This inspection revealed the fact that the piece of the cloth cover, one inch by two inches in size, had been our from the frame in the center of one of the largest blotches or stains. As this was not done by any one connected with the prosecution the inference is drawn that it was done by some one interested in the defense, and that it was for the purpose indicated by Durrant's alleged state-

HARRISHURG, Oct. 14.-The question of how many candidates for judge of the supreme court can be voted for at the coming election will have to be settled by the supreme court, as Judge Simonton, president judge of the Dauphin county ourt, decided that seven candidates can be voted for, while Judge McPherson, the additional law judge of the same court, dissents in a manner and says that in voting for six the constitutional rights of a voter will not be invaded at the same time formally concurring because he wishes the judgment of the president judge to stand. The attorneys have made out the papers for the supreme court and will present them today or tomorrow.

Shot to Protect His Mother.

Easton, Pa., Oct. 14 -- Little John Fox protected his mother, Mrs. Polly Ann Fox, and to do it he shot Ellsworth Harwi through the body. AT THE ARMY'S HEAD

GENERAL NELSON A. MILES WILL SOON ASSUME THAT PLACE.

He Was Not Graduated from West Point, and He Is the Loungest Man but One to Become Communder In Chief-His Career In Brief.

General Nelson A. Miles, now in command of the military department of the east, with headquarters on Governors island, in New York harbor, who is to assume command of the entire army upon the impending retirement of General Schofield, will be the first officer not a graduate of West Point to reach that high place. He will also be the youngest general, excepting General Phil Sheridan, who has ever been at the head of Uncle Sam's military forces. General Sheridan was but 52 years old when he died. General Miles is 57, and as 64 is the retirement age has seven years of active service before him.

Nelson A. Miles was 22 when the war broke out, having been born in 1839 at Westminster, Mass. The little red schoolhouse was the source of his earliest education, and the course he received there was supplemented by the training of the village academy. At 16 he left the academy and went to Boston, where he got a place as clerk or salesman in a dry goods store. Among his ancestors were numbered some of the old time fighters of the republic, and a love for military affairs was one of his charac teristics even when a boy. In 1860. when there seemed to be some prospect of civil war, he joined in with a number of other young men and formed an organization which took military instructions from an old French officer. He was therefore fairly well trained in military matters when hostilities broke out, and upon enlisting was made a captain in the Twenty-second Massachusetts infuntry.

With this regiment he joined the Army of the Potomac and served throughout the pennsula campaign He attained the rank of colonel in the short space of two months, when he was but 22 years old.

At Fredericksburg he was wounded in the neck, and at Chancellorsville received a severe wound in the groin and leg, being so badly hurt that he had to be carried from the field. This injury kept Miles from active service for some time. and it was due to it that he was not present at the battle of Gettysburg, the only important engagement in which the Army of the Potomac took part at which he was not present. At Spottsyl vania he was in the thick of the fight, and in the closing operations of the war, including the action at White Oak Ridge and the pursuit of Lee, Miles still further distinguished himself. When the war closed, he was brevetted a brigadier general of the regular army in special recognition of his services at Chancellorsville. Later he received a full commission as brigadler general of volunteers for his services at the Wilderness and Spotteylvenia.

When there was no more fighting to be done in the south, Miles having signified a desire to continue his military career, he was made a colonel in the regular army and assigned to command the Fortieth infantry. In 1869 he was transferred from that command to the Fifth infantry. Application was made by the interior department in 1874 to the war department for punishment of hos tile Indians wherever found, and it was then that Miles' career as an Indian fighter began. Before the year was over he had inflicted exemplary punishment upon the Kiowas, Comanches and Cheyennes in southern Kansas. In 1876, and shortly after the Custer massacre, Miles and his regiment were ordered to the Yellowstone valley, in eastern Montana. Generals Terry and Crook were in the field, but hed not succeeded in doing much, although they had 4,000 seldiers. Soon after Miles arrival they withdrew, and then, late in the fall, Miles began his campaigns against Sitting Bull and Crazy Horse. In 1877 Miles did excellent work along the Red water, among the Wolf mountains and in the Rosebud valley and in the same year practically wiped out the Nez Perces, under Chief Joseph. Ta 1578 he eastigated the Bannocks. The next winter he passed in the east as a member of the army equipment board, but in 1879 he did more and effeetive Indian lighting.

Shortly after his victories in 1879 he was made a brigadier general in the regular army, and was in command at first of the department of the Columbia and then the department of the Missomi. In 1886 and 1887 he captured Geronimo after Crook had tailed, and was then assigned to the division of the Pacific, and in 1590, on the death of General Crook, was made major general, with headquarters at Chicago. That winter he broke up the ghost dances in Dakota, and since then there have been no Indian disturbances worth mentioning. He was placed in command of the department of the east last year.

In 1868 General Miles was married to Miss Mary Sherman, a niece of Senator John Sherman. Their daughter, Miss Cecilia Miles, is a charming woman, and the son, Sherman Miles, is a stordy lad in his early teens.

ACTION OF THE RAIN. The Wonderful Factor It Is In the Disin-

terration of Rocks. The rain falling on the rocks sinks into every crack and crevice, carrying with it into these fissures surface material which has been degraded by the weather, and thus affording a matrix sufficient to start the growth of vegetation and afterward to maintain the plants. The fibers and roots of these plants, bushes and trees thus brought into life, growing and expanding, act as wedges to split up the surface of the rock and to commence the process of wearing away. From this quality of destruction a large class of plants derive the name of saxifrages, or rock breakers, from their roots penetrating into the minute fissures in search of water, and so assisting in the process of disintegration. In winter the water collected in the hollows and crevices becomes frozen, and expanding as it changes into ice acts like a charge of blasting material in breaking up the rock. The pieces thus detached become further disintegrated by frost and weather, and, being iolled over and over and jubbed against each other as they are carried away down the mountain torrents, are ground gradually smaller and smaller, till from fragments of rock they become bowlers, then pebbles and finally sand. As the mountain stream merges into the river the pebbles and coarse sand continue to be rolled along the bottom of the charnel, while the ragillaccous particles and salts become mingled with the water or solution. While this disintegrating process is going on inland the rocks and cliffs on the coast exposed to the sea are suffering degradation by a similar process and are also being worn away by the incessant action of the waves of the ocean beating on them and attacking them, not only with the impact of the water, but also with the fragments broken off, which, dashed against the face from which they have been croded, are thus used as implements of destruction.-Longman's Magazine.

Overathleticism.

The body can be killed through one organ, and in youth and middle age mortal mjury of body and mind comes usually through one organ as the primary seat of evil. It is an evil of frequent occurrence and greatly on the increase. A man is said to "throw himself, heart and soul, into his work." Such a man 15 in danger. He has four great parts of his body to consider—his heart and blood system, his lungs and other organs associated with breathing, his muscles, his brain and nervous system. But he does not heed them at all. He runs or cycles excessively, and in a much shorter time than he has the least idea of he makes his heart too strong for the rest of his organism and endangers the finer ramifications of the vessels which are under the domination of the heart. He rows without studying consequences, and long before he is convinced of trouble he has produced an injury of the chest mechanism which may soon be permanently established.

He takes to some muscular training, which puts the muscular organs to an extreme of tension. Large and smal muscles alike are exposed to strain, both the strong muscles that give propulsion and the delicate muscles that guide, and before he has become conscious of the error he has committed he is a strained man, from which predicament he is fortunate if he make anything like a complete recovery. Another man enters into e impetitions in which his mental organare kept awake for long intervalcha ged with expectations, auxieties, tears, may, excess of satisfaction, and avhile he is yet young he grows old. -Saturday Review.

A Famous Dog.

Railway Bob is the name of a famens dog in Australia. He passes his whole existence on the train, his favorite seat being on top of the coalbox. In this way he has traveled many thousands of miles, going over all the lines in South Australia. He is well known in Victoria, frequently seen in Sydney, and has been up as far as Brisbane. The most curious part of his conduct is that he has no master, but every engine driver is his friend. At night he follows home the engine driver of the day. never leaving him or letting him out of his sight until they are back in the railway staticu in the morning, when he starts off on another of his ceaseless ourneyings -New York Tribune.

THE STAR TICKET OF DEMOCRACY SHINES OVER A UNITED PARTY.

Cheering News From All Parts of the Stute-Demoralization of the Republicans In New York and Brooklyn-Denounced by Clergymen.

[So wild New York Correspondence.] The latest reports received at Democratic beadquarters in this city from every quarter are of the brightest and most encouriging kind. All are united in enthusiastic support of the popular state ticket I laced in nomination by the Syracuse convention. There is not a discordant voice in the party when the ticket is named. This is particularly the case in New York and Brooklyn, which promise to give the ticket large majorities, fully equal to those of former years.

All Loyal For the State Ticket.

There is not the slightest ground for fear that lecal differences will affect the state ticket. In every local contest the rival Democrate give the strongest assurances of their cordial and unqualified support of the nominees of the Syracuse convention. So far as this question is concorned, the party is a unit. The rivalry to regard to local tickers is stirring up as much interest and excitement among the party here and in Brooklyn as if this were gubernatorial election, and that will undoubtedly be of material assistance, as it will bring out a much larger vote than could under other circumstances be hoped for. The friends of the rival local candifates are naturally anxious to make as good a showing as possible on the day of election, thus to manifest their strength and bear out their claims. Consequently a very large number of votes, which might otherwise be lost by reason of indifference and consequent neglect to register, will be cast for the Democratic state ticket. Personal and individual interests thus go to swell the amjority for the Star ticket on election day.

Remoralized Republicans.

Never before in the history of the Republican party in New York and Brooklymbave there been such demoralization, such pitiful blander and such bitter hosfility between factions and individuals as there exist at present. The usual penalty for double dealing and hypocrisy on the excise and Sanday observance question is being exacted of the Republican party leaders, who have shuffled so shamelessly with it. They have been playing a game of deception with city and country on this subject, and so transparent is their juggiing that they decelve no one.

Bottling Up Warner Miller. Every effort is being made to bottle up Warner Miller, who fathered the excise plank in the Saratoga Republican platform. Half the conferences held recently in this city by Mr. Platt and his lieutenants, estensibly for other purposes, have been really to devise ways and means to keep the terrible Warner Miller from spoiling their little game to hoodwink the people in the city and country districts on this excise question. Afraid to Go on the Stump. To carry out the scheme of deception Black Crook outdons. S rictly the report is given our from Republican headquarters that the campaign is to be a campaign of silence. Spellbinders are warned off, and the stump is deserted. Should it be a speaking campaign, the efforts of 100 wild horses could not keep the terrible Warnet Miller from speaking his mind about the country and city views of the excise question promulgated by the Republican leaders from this city—to wit, for country use, "Maintenance of the Sunday laws:" for city use, "Free beer; no Sunday laws. ' This has been put in another form by one of the Republican leaders while expressing his disgust at his party's shuffling on this question. He calls it: "For country, fourth commandment and no barrel; for city, barrel and no fourth commandment." Quarrels In the G. O. P.

The quarrels among the Republicans in every district in New York and Brooklyn have reached a degree of bitterness such as defies all compromise. In most instances the Democrats have arrived at a satisfactory understanding in their local differences and have displayed a conciliatory spirit. But the war on Platt by the most influential Republican organizations in both cities is one to the knife. There is no let up on the part of the opponents of the Tioga boss. As they regard the Sarntoga convention as an assemblage of puppets managed by Platt they have little love for the ticket which that assemblage brought forth, and which, when it was nominated for the first time two years ago, excited their ridicule and decision. There is fighting all along the Republican line in these two counties.

Denounced by Clergymen.

The fourth commandment received shabby treatment last Sunday from the Republican leaders. They were at conferences, caucuses, deals and new platforms on that day from early morn to late at night. When the Dolly Varden fusion ticket came out of all this muddle, it received the prompt attention of numerous clergymen in the city. The Methodist ministers met the next day and unanimous'y adopted the following resolution:

"The members of the New York Preachrs' meeting of the Methodist Episcopal thurch desire to put on record their condemination of the action of the representagives of political parties and political factions, who, claining to represent the reform sentiment in this city, spent the hours of Sunday, Oct. 6, in a conference iver the parceling out of nominations for office on the basis of the number of votes

In y claimed to control. "We desire to deshare that in a political campaign where the chief moral issue is the rigid enforcement of Sunday law this Sabbath desecration by the men who claim prepresent the moral elements in our politics is an outingeous affront to not mly the Christian sentiment of the peo-ale, but to the moral sense of all law abiding citizens." Next came the United Presbyterian synod of New York with this significant proclamation: "We regard with absolute distrust the effort of the fusionists of New York to satisfy those who demand a secular Sunday on the one hand and the order loving element who desire the faithful execution of existing Sunday laws on the ather." Thus the shufflers find themselves despised and reproved in the very quarters where they thought they might pose as re-

FUGITIVE EX-MONK ARRESTED. Darnley Beaufort Must Answer to Charges of Frand and Assault,

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 14.-Darnley Beaufort, the deposed principal of Gethamne college, near Bardstown Ky., was arrested in this city on Saturday, and is now in iall. The police have been searching for Beaufort for some time, but were unable to locate him. He says he has been in Louisville and New Albany all the time, however.

The cause of Beaufort's arrest here was a warrant sworn out by Mr. J. L. Deppen, a clother, charging him with obtaining mon y under files pretenses. Beaufort, in August last, gave Mr. Deppen a check for $100 on the Marion National bank, which was protested. His case was called in the police court on Saturday, but was continued until Oct. 29.

An officer from Bardstown arrived in the city with two warrants for Beaufort's arrest, charging him with committing nameless offenses upon two boys who attended Gethsamne college. Beaufort re-fused to give bail in the Deppen case, claiming that he would be rearrested and taken to Bardstown, where he said he was afraid that he would be assassinated by his enemies, and he thought it was safer for him to remain in the Louisville jail. He claims that he will be able to clear himself of all the charges against him at the proper time. In the Bardstown cases bail was fixed at $2,000 each.

Despite the efforts of the Republican city committee to get a full registration of Republican voters on the first two days' reports from all , the districts are to the effect that the registration of Republicans is far behind the expectations of the party leaders. Reports from other Republican cities show a marked falling off in the registration from last year's figures. It looks as if Republican enthusiasm was at a low emb this year.

Warner Miller is annou ced to speak before the Republican Club of Both were badly punished. New York city, to-morrow evening. The State Committee is so fearful that he will say something in favor of "God and morality," which the the party machine is being brought Buckingham on the street, to day. -to bear to induce Mr.-Miller to-cascel the engagement and enter into bonds not to come south of Spuyten Duyvil Creek until after election.

The Sunday beer plank of the plat form of the New York city Republicans was denounced from several pulpits in that city, yesterday. Rev. Dr. Iglehart, of the Park Avenue Methodist Church, declared that it was an insult to the better element in the Republican party which had always been loyal to it and a shameless bid for the voters of the ignorant and lawles class. It had, he de clared, driven thousands of Republicans out of the party and would reduce the Republican vote in the city by 25,000. Apparently Dr Parkhurst who takes the Sunday beer plank without a grimace does not speak for all the clergy of New York city and it is a good thing for the clergy that he does not.

THE NEW HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING Regents of the University Glad the Appropriation Was Voted.

The Regents of the University have written the Board of Education congratulating it and the people of Middletown on the carrying of the appropriation for a new academy. The following extract from the letter will be read with interest:

"We are all very much pleased to learn that the taxpayers have decided to give you a new $60,000 school building. The majority was, to say the least, very creditable as showing the right spirit as regards educational work.

'The cut shows that the building will be most attractive and the description indicates one of the most modern and best chool buildings in the State."

THE WELCOME RAIN.

Although Much Water Fell Streams Were Only Slightly Raised.

depot: F. NEWBERY & Sons, 1, King Edward st , London. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston, U. S. A.

The rain which began, Saturday, continued yesterday and a very considerable quantity of water fell, but so parched and dry was the earth that it drank up the rain as fast as it descended and very little found its way into the streams. Even the mountain brooks along the Ontario and Western, which are usually quick to rise after even a light rainfall have been scarcely affected by the two days' rain.

Very little relief has therefore been afforded cities and villages whose reservoirs are empty, but now that it has got into the way of raining again we may expect frequent storms and the weatherwise see in the fact that it cleared foff in the night reason for hoping that it will rain again before many days.

THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING.

Br. and Wrs. Hiland II, Hunt Celebrate the Fiftieth Analyersary of Their Marriage Mf Hunt's Interest in Middletown's Crowth and Progress-Sincere Congratulations and Good Wishes,

Mr. and Mrs. H land H. Hunt, two of Middletown's oldest, most respected and most highly esteemed residents, are today celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding, and are receiving the congratulations of friends, at their residence, No. 28 Cortland street.

A large number of invitations have been issued and Mr. and Mrs. Hunt will be at home from 4 to 60'clock, this afternoon, and from 7 to 10 o'clock, this evening. A number of friends from Greene county, Brooklyn and other places will be present.

Mr. Huntand Miss Mary B. Bianchard were married Oct. 14, 1845, at Windham, Greene county, by Rev. Leonard B. Van Wyck. Mr. Hunt says that their wedding day was almost an exact counterpart of today-a warm, bright October day. After the ceremony they drove twen'y six miles to Catskill, where they took a boat to New York. Mr. Hunt recalls that just as they were leaving the house the sheriff of Delaware county passed with fittern antirent war prisoners on their way to Clinton prison.

Mr. Hunt was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel H. Huut and was born at Windham, Greene county, N. Y. April 28, 1818. He was the oldest of nine children, of whom, besides him self, but four sisters survive. They are residents of Windham.

Mr. Hunt upon his twenty-first birthday became a member of the firm of Matthews, Hunt & Co., carpet bag manufacturers at Windham, and after thirteen years of successsold recently for twelve and half ful business in that place the firm removed to this city in 1852. Tae business was continued until Mr. Hunt's retirement in 1868, since which time the firm has been known as Matthews & Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunt's union has not been blessed with children of their own, but they have cared for and educated four children. They are Mr. Hunt's youngest brother, D Clifford Hunt, now deceased; Mr. Hiland H. Blanchard, superintendent of the National Saw Works in this city; Louise, wife of Wm. F. O'Neill, Esq, of this city, and Mary, widow of Mr. George McChesney, of Greene

Mr. Hunt has been a life-long Democrat, and although he has never held a public office other than that of trustee of the village of Middletowa, he has been one of the most earnest workers for his party's suc cess, and has taken a deep interest in Middletown's development. He was a trustee at the time of the formation of Middletown's fire department, and althou b not a member of any of the companies, he was an ardent supporter of the department, and it was largely through his effo ts that houses were built for the companies. The establishment of the gas works in this city was also due to Mr. Hunt's perelatency while in the Buard of Trustees. After several years' hard work the board finally voted 3 to 2 to award the franchise to Mr. Sutton, who was the original owner of the plant.

When he moved to this city in 1852 Mr. Hunt purchased a large tract of land surrounding his present residence, extending from Linden avenue to Highland avenue. The house now occupied by Mrs. Frances E. Mills, 42 Wickham avenue, then stood on the site of Mr. Hunt's present residence. He resided in that structure for four years, and then erected the house in which he has spont many happy years, moving the old house to its present site. Mr. and Mrs. Hunt have won for themselves not only the respect and esteem of all the people of Middletown, but have also a strong hold on the affections of those who know them most intimately. They have been hospitable and warm hearted, generous in their charities, helpful in time of sickness, sorrow and troubie. They have been warm and tions and good wishes with which they will be showered, to-day, will come from the hearts of all who know them and who therefore love them.

Sam Beasley's Horses Stuck Fast in a boft boot on West Main Street.

While Howard Jones, driver of Sam Bensley's back, was driving the team on West Main street, Saturday afternoon, a cave-in occurred at the corner of Bonnell street, where the Traction Company had excavated for the curve. The earth was very ecfa at that place owing to the recent excavations for a sawer. One of the horses sank down several feet and was extricated with difficulty. The wheels of the back were damaged, the axle was bent and some of the harness broken.

The horse received several bad cuts about the legs.

The Season of Palling Leaves and Palling Sumans-Resumed the Manufacture of Evaporated Hilk-The Wel come Rain.

-This is the season of the year when the leaves begin to turn and fall. The sidewalks are thickly covered with them and, thoroughly wet by the late raine, they are anatomies, who can testify to the truth of this fact. MERITS OF THE RAISIN. It Has Great Nutritious As Well as Medicinal Properties. As the grape cure has made its way into modern methods of dealing with disease—bundreds filling the German establishments where this return to nature is practiced-many a patient who has found himself made over by the treatment has added to it a use of the dried grape or raism. Fruit of all sorts is becoming more and more a part of the regular food supply, and a growing constituency of people announce themselves as believers in a diet of fruit and nuts. Leaving these extremists out of the present question, it is certain that health increases for whoever substitutes fruit, both fresh and dried, for a large part of the ordinary diet in daily use. One of our best literary workers has found that a bunch of good raisins with a slice of bread or a empender or two makes a lanch that is not only satisfactory, but leaves the brain clear for the afternoon's work. Even in the days of our forefathers the Muscatel maisins, called so perhaps from the Musea grape. brought by the Moors from their African homes into Spain, were credited with a special recuperative force, and known as "raysons of the sun." They were part of the equipage of a last illness. Saffron water and these traysons of the sun" were side by side on the neut little table, which held also the big Bible reserved for solenin occasions, all three reminding the sufferer that he or she had done with the ordinary fare of mortal life. But there need be no such somber association with the raism of today, our own California providing at its best a rich fruity raisin, sun dried, of course, yet not so much dried as distilled, all the watery parts being driven off and the richer qualities of the grape develgred in nature's own alembic. These raisins, with whole wheat bread, make a genuine food, good for child as well as man and hailed by the children with acclamation. The need for sugar-an instinct with children-is met in raisins or dates in unfinitely more healthy fashion than in any other order of sweet, and the child who has full provision of such fraits makes no demand for caudy or cake.

The best California raisins are now cheap enough to be within the means of all, and their use is steadily increasing. A set of young lawyers in New York have adopted fruit as a lauch, fluding that weak can go on with none of the sense of heav ness produced by the ordimary meal, and massus have been introduced as the of the most satisfying forms.—Philadelphia Press.

BOCG MAIDIN

They Have No Love For the White Man and Show It.

Kickapoo Indians are very fond of dogs, both alive and fricaseed. Around their tepees, or wickings, or Queen Annes, or whitever they call their abodes, there are always half a dozen wolfish dogs. An Indian dog hates a white man as far as he can see him and loves an Indian as far as be can smell him, and that is saying a good

When a white man driving through the Kickapoo country sees a dog by the roadside, his natural impulse is to whistle in a friendly way, for somehow in a wilderness of prairie or forest a dog is a comfortable sight.

But the instant you whistle to an Indian dog he turns his tall, and is out of sight quicker than if he had been kicked. An Indian never whistles to his dog when he wants his beast to come to him; he places his tengue against his teeth and hi-ses.

The colored population of Oklahoma have almost as many dogs as the Indians. Those who live in the blackjack sand hills are dog rich. These dogs have a deep rooted aversion for the white man also. When an old colored cotton planier comes to town, some of the dogs. are sure to follow, and when the old man walks up town the dog stays right between his feet like a country dog under a wapon. And whenever a white man comes within snapping distance the dog gets busy.-Kansas City Star.

A Question of Wills. The making of one's will is hardly to be ranked among the pleasant duties of life. "My will," says Slender, "I never made my will yet, I thank heaven. I am not such a stekly creature, I giva heaven praiset* Bo also Dame Quickly, when considering Falstaft's spiritual concerns, hopes that "it isn't time to think of making a will yet." When David Garrick ostenuarously displayed to the great bexegrapher his pictures, china, rare books and firmitine at Hampton Court, the sage exclaimed, "Ah, David, David, these are the things that make a deathbod terrible?"

A story is told of a dying miser, by whose bedside sat the lawyer, receiving instructions for the proporation of his last will and testament. "I give and bequeath," repeated the attorney aloud, as he commenced to write the accustomed formula. "No, no," interrupted the sick man, "I will neither give nor Equeath mything; I connot do it." 'Well, then," suggested the man of law, after a few moments' consideration, "suppose we say lend. 'I lend until the last day. " "Yes, that will do

PRIESTS IN THE NAVY.

But Three Have Been Appointed Chaplain, and Father Chidwick Is the Last.

Of all the chaplains in the United States navy but three are Roman Catholies and but three of that faith have ever been anpointed. The last is Rev. Father John P. Chidwick, who reecived his appointment in March from President Cleveland and recently became chaplain of the battleship Maine, which

FATHER CHIDWICK. was not long ago placed in commission. Father Chidwick is 52 years of age and received his education at Sr. Gabriel's school, New York city, Manhattan college and the Troy Theological seminary. After completing his education Father Chidwick officiated as fourth assistant pastor of St. Stephen's church, New York, up to the time that he was appointed chaplain in the navy. He is very popular among the jack tars on board the big battleship Maine, the first battleship placed in commission by the government, and his services are attended by the greater part of the crew. The first Roman Catholic chaplain ever appointed in the navy was Father Charles Parks, who is now chaplain of the receiving ship Vermont at the Brooklyn navy yard. The Vermont is one of the old wooden ships, and has been stripped of masts and roofed over. She is tied up at Cob dock, and men who enter the payy are trained on board until they are proficient enough to assume the regular duties of jack tars on some ship in commission. Father Parks was appointed by President Cleveland in 1658, and was first assigned to the Vermont. Later he went on a cruise with the Philadelphia, after which he returned to the Vermont. He holds services at the hospital and on shipboard every Sunday niorniug.

Rev. Father Rancy, the second Roman Catholic chaplain, has seen more service than his fell aw churchmen. He was uppointed in 1891 by President Harrison and has been at sea most of the time since. While the Charleston was in Chinese waters he saw a great deal of the war between China and Japan.
